

KING UNDER ARREST AS FORGER WANTED FOR LARCENY

Americanized Chinaman Gave
Wall St. Explosion Basis for
Loss of $72,000.

Le Lum, a Chinese exporter of Trinidad, and his brother alleged that they have $72,000 to Charles King, an Americanized Chinaman, for investment in steel stock through the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. They got no return for their money, they said, and when they taxed Charles King with it he alleged to have replied that he sent a messenger with the money to the Morgan offices at noon on Sept. 16, 1920, and that the messenger and the money were blown to atoms in the Wall Street explosion of that day.

This story of King and the Lum Brothers came out to-day when the former was arraigned before Magistrate Ryttenberg in Centre Street Court, charged with forging the name of Kuo Lee, a Chinese student at Columbia, to a check for $1,000. It was charged that King had gone to the banking house of E. P. Hurton & Co., No. 41 Broadway on Feb. 17, obtained there a check drawn to Lum's order, and that he had forged the endorsement and cashed the check.

While these proceedings were going on Detectives Pay and Fitzpatrick of Old Ship Station came into court and stated that they wanted King for the Lum transaction. The Magistrate held King, who lives at No. 177 West 73d Street, in $10,000 bail on the forgery charge and told the detectives that would give them time to gather facts and present them to the Grand Jury in the other matter.

FRENCH INSPECTOR SPEAKS HIGHLY OF THE N. Y. POLICE

Incidentally Says That Will
Can Trim the Senegal
Wild Man.

Inspector Louis Riboulet, of the Paris Police Department, sailed for home to-day on the liner France after paying a generous tribute to the police of this city. He came here on Sept. 6 to attend the conference of national police heads and made a careful study of police administration in this country.

"It is not at all incorrect to designate the New York Police as 'The Finest,'" he declared. "They're the finest I've seen anywhere. And the detective force is an excellent body of men."

"Commissioner Enright deserves great credit for his plan to bring together the police chiefs of various countries for adequate protection against the criminal."

"The manner in which traffic is handled in New York is worthy of great commendation. Deputy Commissioner Harries deserves the greatest credit for it."

"During my visit I have picked up a great deal of valuable information, much of which will be of aid in the administration of the Paris department."

Inspector Riboulet expressed surprise at the easy defeat of Carpentier by the Senegalese fighter. "He couldn't have trained very earnestly," he said, "and I think he held the other too lightly. I believe, from what I've heard, that if Willie trained conscientiously he can defeat him."

MONTREAL POLICE TRY TO CHECK DRUG DEATHS

MONTREAL, Sept. 25.—The number of deaths due to drugs in this city recently led the police to announce today they would seek permission of the courts to deport all persons convicted of smuggling or distributing drugs.

"In the Montreal General Hospital alone fifteen drug victims have died in the last two months," it was reported. As the result of recent raids and round-ups, drug houses are being promptly broken nearly every criminal court in the city to-day.

The young man shot and killed early this morning by Patrolman John V. There were three burglars. One stood at the jimmy door and the two others, who had turned out the light, were at the cash register.
